

Your personality blend is Mentor | Inventor

You're full of ideas and have an easy time using your imagination in many settings. Skilled at taking others' perspectives, you find the circumstances that affect other people both a topic of compelling interest and a motivating focus of your creative and solutions-oriented energy.

Personality Breakdown

Complements

You work well with your Inventor colleagues who share your creative mind and your ability to work in a sometimes chaotic work environment. When you get together, the ideas start to flow, and you feel inspired by putting your minds together. You also like to work with other Mentors who share your passion for teamwork and helping others. You may find yourself especially grateful for your Planner colleagues who help you keep track of the details. You like to get lost in an artistic vision for a project and appreciate your Planner co-workers taking care of the minutia which require a great amount of intricate focus.

Conflicts

You pride yourself in getting along with all types of people and are fortunate that you work well with everyone. You may find, however, that you have to adjust your style for your Action-Taker colleagues. You prefer to work on teams with regular meetings and communication, while Action-Takers like to work on solitary projects.

Best Work Environments

- Allows for both independent work and teamwork
- Fosters helping other people
- Offers meaningful supervision
- Values the creative process
